

Legal details, data protection

Area of applicability

This is the official website of Schulthess Maschinen AG and serves the purpose of providing customer information.

Intellectual property and other rights

Schulthess Maschinen AG is the owner and operator of this website. All brands, names, titles, logos, pictures, designs, texts and other materials appearing in it are the property of Schulthess Maschinen AG. Calling up, downloading or copying does not confer any rights. Reproduction, irrespective of whether in full or in part (electronically or by other means), modification, linking or use of the website for public or commercial purposes is permissible only with the prior written approval of Schulthess Maschinen AG.

Exclusion of liability

Schulthess Maschinen AG excludes all liability (including negligence) arising from the access or inability to access the website or individual elements thereof and their use. Access and use of the website are not guaranteed.

The Internet is an open network, accessible to all, and therefore cannot be regarded as a safe environment. Although the individual data packages are generally transmitted in encrypted form, this does not apply to the sender and recipient. Moreover, data may be transferred abroad and thereby to a country in which the standard of data protection is lower than that in Switzerland, even when sender and recipient are in Switzerland. Schulthess Maschinen AG excludes any liability for the security of data in transit via the Internet.

Where the Schulthess Maschinen AG website contains links to third-party websites, no warranty nor responsibility and liability for the content and the adherence to the legal data protection regulations on the part of the operator of the linked pages is provided.

Collection and use of information

When our website is accessed, various access data (for example, date and time of access, IP address, name of the file called up, etc.) are stored.

No evaluations relating to personal information are performed. The data is evaluated anonymously. For example, to determine how many times the website is accessed per day, in other words for statistical purposes. This data is treated confidentially and not passed on or made accessible to third parties unless required under the prevailing law and in particular by the responsible law enforcement authorities.

Google Analytics

This website employs Google Analytics, a web analysis service provided by Google Inc. Google Analytics uses so-called cookies, which are small text files stored on your computer that make it possible to analyse your use of the website. The information produced by the cookie about your use of this website (including your IP address) is transferred to a Google server in the United States and stored there. Google takes this information in order to evaluate your usage of the website, generate reports about website activity for the operators of websites and in order to provide further services related to website usage and Internet usage. Google may also provide this information to outside parties if this is legally mandated or if such parties process this information for Google. Under no circumstances will Google link your IP address with other Google data. You may prevent the installation of cookies by making appropriate settings in your browser software; however, should you do so, you will not be able to use all of the functions of this website. Through the use of this website, you express your consent to the processing of data collected by Google about you in the manner described above and for the purposes previously mentioned.

Data security and access

All personal data will of course be treated as confidential. Secure storage of your personal data (such as in connection with the request for a product catalogue for example) is guaranteed.

Every customer is entitled to demand details of the personal information held concerning him and to have these updated, amended or deleted. Personal data will in any case be deleted when no longer required.

Product prices and availability

Despite taking all possible care, errors and omissions cannot be completely excluded. All prices are quoted for information only and are not binding. The prices applicable are those quoted at the point of sale. Any special offers may be available only in restricted quantities, in certain regions or in certain sales points. Schulthess Maschinen AG accepts no liability for product unavailability or inaccurate price information. We reserve the right to make model changes. The prices quoted are only intended as a guide. All prices are quoted in Swiss francs (CHF). The amounts are quoted both as gross amounts including VAT and net amounts excluding VAT and do not include the statutory advance recycling charge. Special time-limited offers apply only between the specified dates.
